EXAMINER'S COMMENT/REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Examiner's Comment

1. Applicant's arguments, see communication, filed 12/27/2004, with respect to rejection over Matyaszewski have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims has been withdrawn.

Allowable Claims

2. Claims 1-3, 5, 8-10, 12-17, 19-34 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the applied prior art reference to Matyaszewski does not teach a small genus, which places the species of claimed acryloyl functional group, as a terminal group on the acrylate polymeric chain, the possession of the public.

Other prior art references have been considered as of the date of the present communication: JP 06-329720 discloses high-purity polyethylene macromonomer which has a terminal (meth)acryloyl group and can be copolymerized with another vinyl monomer to give a comb-type graft polymer suitable as a polymer blend compatibilizer or surface modifier.

JP'720 does not teach or suggest the presence of (meth)acryloyl terminal group on the polymer chain derived from (meth)acrylate monomer.

The other references discovered by the Examiner (EP 0 266 775, U.S. 6,063,954, U.S. 5,484,823) do teach the (meth)acrylate macromonomers having methacryloyl terminal groups, however, none of these references teaches or suggests the living polymerization process in order to obtain such polymers, and it is shown in the instant specification that the low values of polydispersity (not more than 1.3, as claimed) are achieved due to the living polymerization process, therefore in the instant case in the product-by-process claim, the process of making does limit the product by producing the resulting polymer with narrow molecular weight distribution.

4. No other prior art that anticipates or suggests fairly the instant cylaims has been discovered as of the date of this office action. Therefore, claims 1-3, 5, 8-10, 12-17, 19-34 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Tatyana Zalukaeva whose telephone number is (571) 272-1115. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:00 - 5:30.
